

Permission

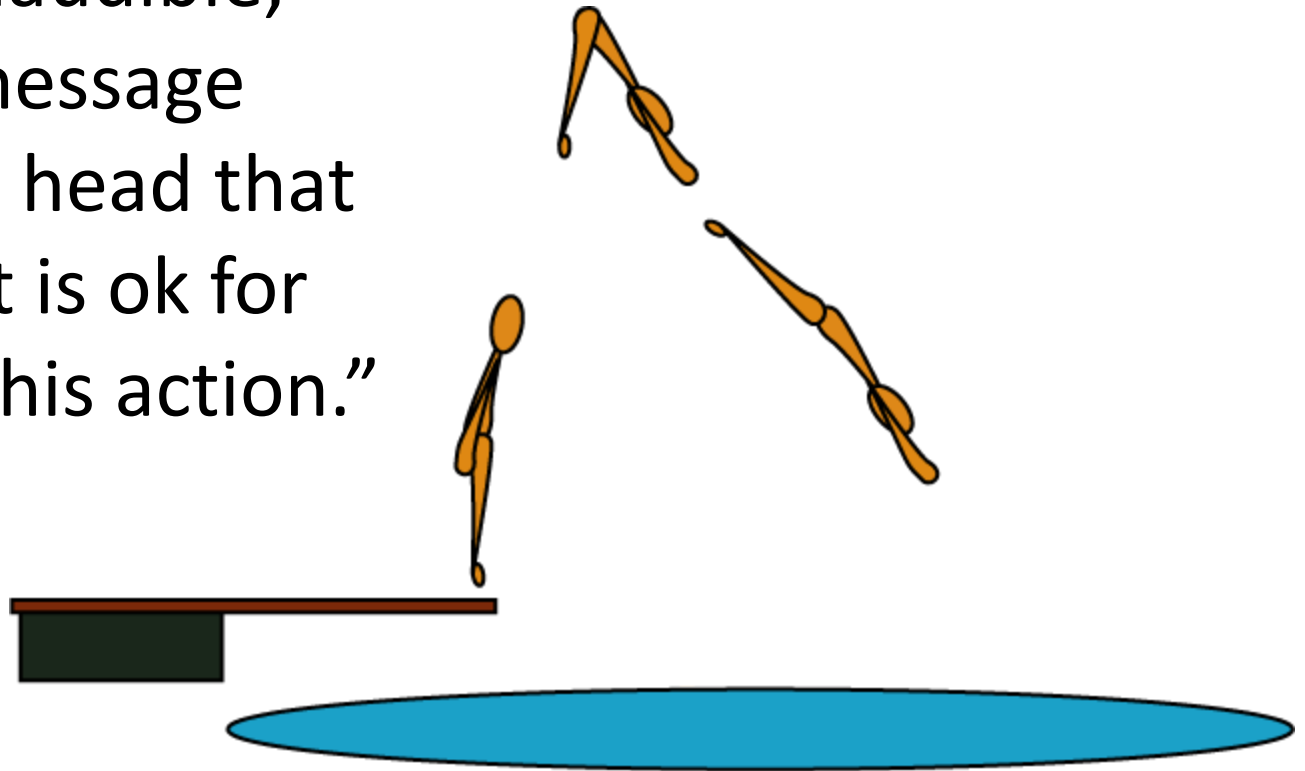

THE MISSION STATEMENT

- The purpose of my life is to Change the World without causing hostility, hatred, or violence by increasing permission to understand, accept, and forgive the differences in cultures, families, and people which offend our personal standards and norms.

THE PERMISSION PRINCIPLE

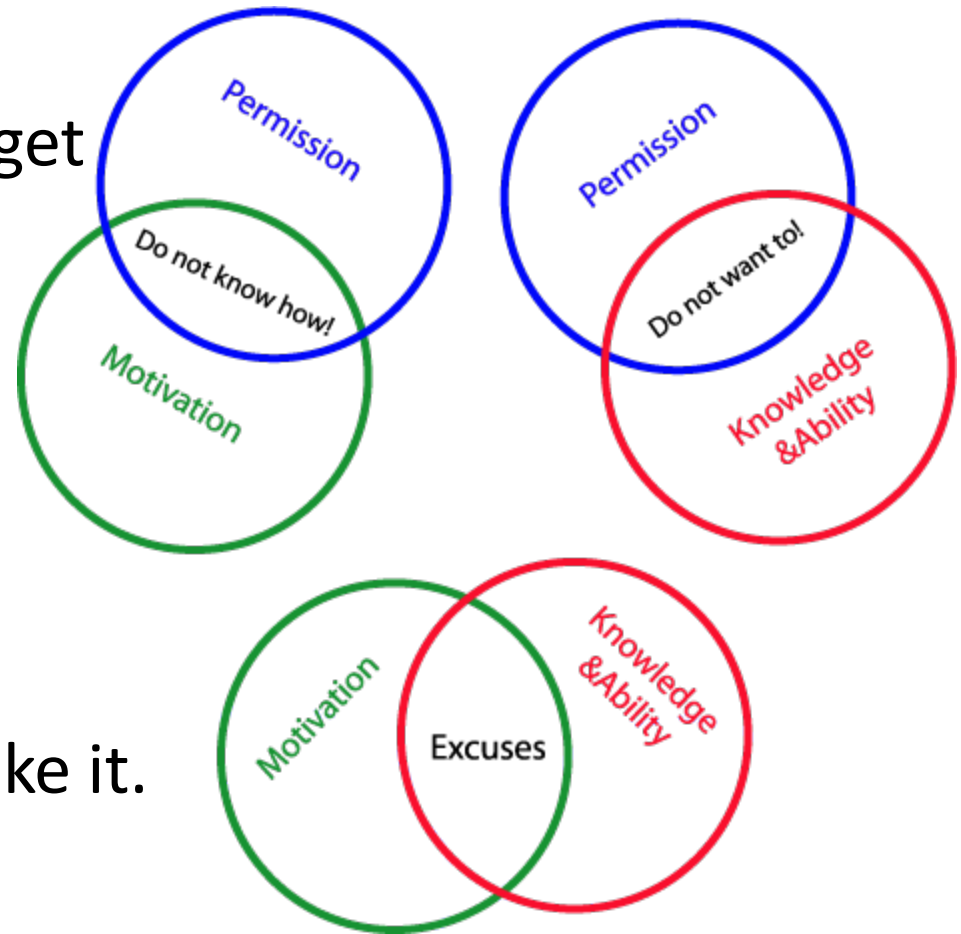

Permission is the invisible, inaudible, intuitive, message inside your head that tells you “It is ok for you to do this action.”

No Excuses

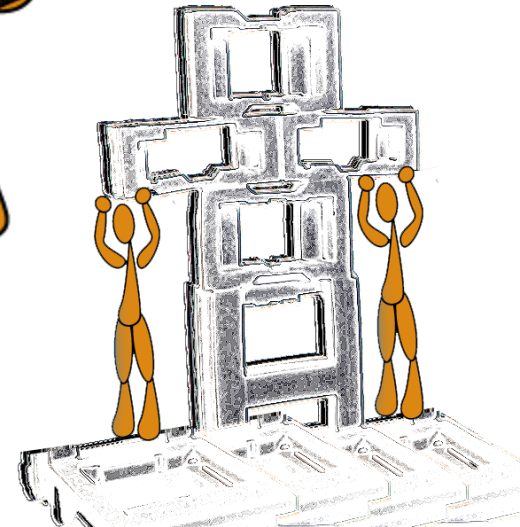

Without all three we just get excuses for not doing:

- I do not know how.
- I do not want to.
- I do not feel like it.
- It is not my thing.
- I don't think I would like it.
- Why do that?
- I am too busy!

Sources for Permission

- Role Models
- Values
- Beliefs
- Stories from childhood
- Songs from childhood
- Movies that inspired
- Mentors

If you are not giving permission, you are probably taking it away

- Critical Communications
- Dogmatic Expectation
- Rigid Beliefs
- Words of Ridicule
- Rejecting people
- Punish behavior

BE AGENTS OF PERMISSION

- Encouraging
- Empowering
- Allowing others to help you

- Paying Attention
- Being an Example
- Interpreting behavior

I do not live in your world

- I have ideas and opinions.
- I throw them over the generation wall.
- If they are valuable in your world keep them.
- If not throw them out.
- But I care enough to keep throwing.

What do the kids want?
